How to Diversify Your KidLit-related Lists

Hey, are you making a kidlit-related list?

No.

You sure? Maybe a list of books, characters, authors, illustrators, panelists? Even a very short list?

No, again.

Wait. Are you sharing a list someone else made?

Still no.

OK, then. Have a great day!

Yes!

Who’s listed, and who’s left out? Are you thinking about diversity?

Sure.

I’m not sure. What do you mean by diversity?

Is there diversity? Racial, gender, ethnic, cultural, religious, disability diversity?

Oh, No, there isn’t.

Would a fair-minded person call this a reasonably diverse list?

OK, I did.

Yes, I really think so. Seriously. I’ve thought about this list from a bunch of different perspectives.

Great! Thank you! We’ll all benefit from that. Let’s keep making better and better inclusive lists!
